ORDER:

In the G.O. first read above, Government have issued orders constituting a Committee to study market potentialities and recommend strategies to develop Ongole Breed Cattle in Andhra Pradesh. The Committee after elaborate discussions felt that the livestock farms play a pivotal role and they are life lines for the development of cattle and buffalo in the State. The Committee also felt that it is necessary to involve all the stake holders in the development of livestock farms. In order to facilitate the involvement of stake holders, the Committee requested the Government to form Livestock Farm Development Committees for all the Farms in the State and involve public representatives in planning, monitoring and supporting over all development of these Farms to meet the future demands in cattle and buffalo development.

2. After examining the recommendations of the Committee, in the letter second read above, the Chief Executive Officer, A.P. Livestock Development has been requested to furnish proposals to Government on the recommendations of the Committee for issue of necessary orders. Accordingly, the Chief Executive Officer, A.P. Livestock Development Agency in the letter third read above has submitted a proposal for constitution of Livestock Farm Development Committees for all the Farms in the State.

3. After careful examination of the proposal of the Chief Executive Officer, A.P. Livestock Development Agency, Hyderabad, Government hereby constitute the Livestock Farm Development Committees for all the Farms in the State, with the following:
